PRESS RELEASE

Official opening ceremony of the project "Ibda3Com"

Santé Sidi El Houari (SDH) NGO, with the support of the Middle East Partnership Initiative (MEPI-USA), is pleased to announce the launch of:

"Ibda3Com" Project

Promoting and Empowering Youth for Civic Engagement through Artistic and Audiovisual Expression, Information and Communication Technologies and Sociocultural Activities

Thursday, March 30, 2017 at the headquarters of Santé Sidi El Houari association at 2:00 pm

This project aims to strengthen the capacities of young volunteers from SDH and several other partner associations in the audio-visual, information, communication and socio-cultural activities through training, education and Socio-professional integration.

Our ambition is to promote and encourage the exercise of citizenship via the artistic expression of young people through the professions of pictures, information, communication technologies and socio-cultural activities.

The project, managed by a team of young executives, will train eight trainers and 220 young people, 20 of whom will be professionally inserted as professional artists or craftsmen.

In "Ibda3Com" project, we will organize various cultural events (workshops, cultural caravans, festival) for education in the field of audio-visual in Oran and in 06 other cities, it will be concluded by a "national short film festival".

This project will be carried out with the help of local authorities, academics, private agencies and personalities in communication and Algerian film industry.
